Overview:

The Quonset Development Corporation (QDC), a public corporation of the State of Rhode Island, is requesting quotations for support of their computer systems at their North Kingstown headquarters.

The primary objective in responding to this RFQ is to support and maintain the QDC network infrastructure, hardware and software environment, e-mail system, and IP Telephony system. Candidates may be required to handle and troubleshoots various software applications used by the QDC, assuming technical support is available from software developers.

Qualified firms should bid on this Request for Quotation if they can support a Cisco IP Telephony system and/or a Microsoft Network Environment.
