Attached please find questions from MTG Disposal Inc. and RIPTA Responses.

- 1) Page 78 Bid Price Worksheet: What is the definition of “Semi-Weekly” collection service at the 265 Melrose Street, 269 Melrose Street and 350 Coddington Highway locations? Is it twice per-week service or every-other-week service? Or something else?
Please see revised Bid Price Worksheet, Revisions are in RED
- 2) Page 78 Bid Price Worksheet: Does the Authority currently own any of the compactors (and chutes) or does the contractor supply all equipment?
The Contractor owns all of the equipment.
- 3) Page 78 Bid Price Worksheet: Do any of the compactors have chutes from a building to the unit to load the trash? Or are they all loaded from the outside directly into the compactor units?
They are all loaded from the outside directly into the Compactor Units.
- 4) Is it the intent of the Authority to contract with a single contractor (hauler) for all locations and items or will they separate and award the different locations to different haulers?
It is the intent of the Authority to award to a single vendor
- 5) Page 78 Bid Price Worksheet: Does the last column labeled “Total Cost” refer to the Total “Annual” Costs or Total “Monthly” Costs?
Please provide the Total ANNUAL Costs.
- 6) Page 78 Bid Price Worksheet: The prices submitted by responders are firm for the three year contract period except for the RIRRC Landfill rates? Then there is the Options for two additional one-year terms calculated at the Per Cent Increase listed on Page 78?
That is correct, Bidders must bid on base contract and both option years
- 7) Who is the current contractor (hauler) and what are the current contract rates for each location?
The Current Contract Hauler is Republic Services. The current rates are not available at this time. It should be noted that the current specifications do not reflect the current equipment.
- 8) What are the current annual tonnage disposal amounts for each location? What are the average tonnage amounts per each empty per location?
These numbers are not available.
