University of Rhode Island Bidder Certification Form/Contract Offer

ALL OFFERS ARE SUBJECT TO THE REQUIREMENTS, PROVISIONS AND PROCEDURES CONTAINED IN THIS CERTIFICATION FORM/CONTRACT OFFER. Offerors are expected to read, sign and comply with all requirements. Failure to do so may be grounds for disqualification of the offer contained herein.

Rules for Submitting Offers

This Certification Form/Contract Offer must be attached in its entirety to the front of the offer and shall be considered an integral part of each offer made by a vendor to enter into a contract with the University of Rhode Island. As such, submittal of the entire Bidder Certification Form/Contract Offer, signed by a duly authorized representative of the offeror attesting that he/she (1) has read and agrees to comply with the requirements set forth herein and (2) to the accuracy of the information provided and the offer extended, is a mandatory part of any contract award.

To assure that offers are considered on time, each offer must be submitted with the specific Bid/RFP/LOI number, date and time of opening marked in the upper left hand corner of the envelope. Each bid/offer must be submitted in separate sealed envelopes.

A complete signed (in ink) offer package must be delivered to the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office by the time and date specified for the opening of responses in a sealed envelope.

Bids must be submitted on the URI bid solicitation forms provided, indicating brand and part numbers of items offered, as appropriate. Bidders must submit detailed cuts and specs on items offered as equivalent to brands requested WITH THE OFFER. Bidders must be able to submit samples if requested.

Documents misdirected to other State locations or which are not present in the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office at the time of opening for whatever cause will be deemed to be late and will not be considered. For the purposes of this requirement, the official time and date shall be that of the time clock in the reception area of the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office. Postmarks shall not be considered proof of timely submission.

RIVIP SOLICITATIONS. To assure maximum access opportunities for users, public bid/RFP solicitations shall be posted on the RIVIP for a minimum of seven days and no amendments shall be made within the last five days before the date an offer is due. Except when access to the Web Site has been severely curtailed and it is determined by the Purchasing Agent that special circumstances preclude extending a solicitation due date, requests to mail or fax hard copies of solicitations will not be honored. When the result of an internet solicitation is unsuccessful, the University of Rhode Island will cancel the original solicitation and resolicit the original offer directly from vendors.

PRICING. Offers are irrevocable for sixty (60) days from the opening date (or such other extended period set forth in the solicitation), and may not be withdrawn, except with the express permission of the University Purchasing Agent. All pricing will be considered to be firm and fixed unless otherwise indicated. The University of Rhode Island is exempt from Federal excise taxes and State Sales and Use Taxes. Such taxes shall not be included in the bid price. PRICES QUOTED ARE FOB DESTINATION.

DELIVERY and PRODUCT QUALITY. All offers must define delivery dates for all items; if no delivery date is specified, it is assumed that immediate delivery from stock will be made. The contractor will be responsible for delivery of materials in first class condition. Rejected materials will be at the vendor's expense.

PREVAILING WAGE and OSHA SAFETY TRAINING REQUIREMENTS. The provisions of the State labor laws and OSHA Safety Training, including but not limited to Rhode Island General Laws §37-13-1 et seq. and §28-20-1 et seq. shall apply for all public works contracts. Prevailing wage rates are posted in the information section of the RIVIP. The RI Department of Labor and Training should be contacted for regulatory requirements.

Apprenticeship. Rhode Island General Laws §37-13-3.1 requires all general contractors and subcontractors who perform work on any public works contract awarded by the state/URI valued at One Million dollars ($1,000,000) or more shall employ apprentices required for the performance of the awarded contract. The number of apprentices shall comply with the apprentice to journeyman ratio for each trade approved by the apprenticeship council of the department of labor and training.

In addition to executing this certification, the general contractor shall be responsible for requiring that all subcontractors on the awarded project certify their compliance with R.I. Gen. Laws §37-13-3.1 prior to allowing the subcontractor to commence work on the awarded project. The general contractor shall be responsible for submitting the subcontractors' compliance certification to the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office after the contracts are finalized between the contractor and subcontractor.

PUBLIC RECORDS. Offerors are advised that all materials submitted to the University for consideration in response to this solicitation will be considered without exception to be Public Records pursuant to Title 38 Chapter 2 of the Rhode Island General Laws, and will be released for inspection immediately upon request once an award has been made. Offerors are encouraged to attend public bid/RFP openings to obtain information; however, bid/RFP response summaries may be reviewed after award(s) have been made by visiting the Rhode Island Vendor Information Program (RIVIP) at www.purchasing.ri.gov, Bidding Opportunities +, Other RI Bid Opportunities or appearing in person at the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office Mondays through Fridays between 8:30 am – 3:30 pm. Telephone requests for results will not be honored. Written requests for results will only be honored if the information is not available on the RIVIP.

Award will be made to the responsive and responsible offeror quoting the lowest net price in accordance with specifications, for any individual item(s), for major groupings of items, or for all items listed, at the University's sole option.

BID SURETY. Where bid surety is required, bidder must furnish a bid bond or certified check for 5% of the bid total with the bid, or for such other amount as may be specified. Bids submitted without a required bid surety will not be considered.

SPECIFICATIONS. Unless specified "no substitute", product offerings equivalent in quality and performance will be considered (at the sole option of the University) on the condition that the offer is accompanied by detailed product specifications. Offers which fail to include alternate specifications may be deemed nonresponsive.

VENDOR AUTHORIZATION TO PROCEED. When a purchase order, change order, contract/agreement or contract/agreement amendment is issued by the University of Rhode Island, no claim for payment for services rendered or goods delivered contrary to or in excess of the contract terms and scope shall be considered valid unless the vendor has obtained a written change order or contract amendment issued by the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office PRIOR to delivery.

Any offer, whether in response to a solicitation for proposals or bids, or made without a solicitation, which is accepted in the form of an order OR pricing agreement made in writing by the University of Rhode Island Purchasing Office, shall be considered a binding contract.

REGULATIONS, GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING STATE AND BOARD OF GOVERNORS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION CONTRACTS. All bonds must be furnished by a surety company authorized to conduct business in the State of Rhode Island. Performance bonds must be submitted within 21 calendar days of the issuance of a tentative notice of award.

DEFAULT and NON-COMPLIANCE Default and/or non-compliance with the requirements and any other aspects of the award may result in withholding of payment(s), contract termination, debarment, suspension, or any other remedy necessary that is in the best interest of the state.

COMPLIANCE Vendor must comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances.

To Struggle for a Place at the Table: Italian-American Protestants in Italy

DENNIS BARONE

St. Joseph College

In 1985 my wife and I went to London after I received a grant from the Pennsylvania Commission of the Arts. While there we went to the British Library to look at Alfredo Barone's 1895 book, La vita di Gesu Cristo ossia l'armonia degli evangelii. At the Van Pelt Library, University of Pennsylvania, I had looked for it in the multi-volume hard copy catalogues for the Library of Congress and the British Library. As soon as we got to the great domed reading room of the latter, an architectural gem designed by a Neapolitan exile, Antonio Panizzi, I completed a call slip and then we waited. The library assistant returned with disappointing news. On the call slip was the word: "mis-shelved." We moved to Connecticut the following year and a few years later I wrote to the British Library and asked to purchase a photocopy of the book. Some months went by before I received a reply informing me that now the book appears to be "missing." In 2008 I tried again. This time I checked the British Library website and sent an email message to the appropriate office. This time I asked for a CD scan. Soon I received a reply. The cost for electronic reproduction was expensive, but not prohibitive. I completed an official order request. On July 17, 2008 I received the following email message: "Unfortunately we are not able to process your order as the item has been destroyed, for order number 08W02654P therefore your order has been cancelled." I wrote back right away and asked, "Why would such an item be destroyed?" And moments later the Customer Services, Account Enquiries associate informed me that La vita di Gesu Cristo ossia l'armonia degli evangelii was among the many books "destroyed in the war." Some weeks later it occurred to me to check Italian libraries. Through the database known as WorldCat, I discovered two copies in central Italy: one in Florence and one in Rome. Again, I sent an email message, in both English and Italian this time, inquiring about purchasing a CD scan, but I did not receive a reply. It was a comfort, though, to know that it would be possible to see and hold and read this work by my great-grandfather.

At about this time, Stefano Luconi and I agreed to co-edit the proceedings of the 2008 meeting of the American Italian Historical Association. After waiting a bit longer to see if I would receive a reply from Rome, I decided to ask Professor Luconi, who teaches in Rome and lives in Florence, if he could lend assistance. Kindly, he handled the whole operation for me and within two weeks I had La vita di Gesu Cristo on CD. Excitedly, I put the CD in my computer as soon as I received it and my first discovery: Alfredo Barone dedicated the volume to Rev. Robert Walker.

Rev. Walker served thirteen years in Naples as minister for the English Baptist Mission. At the end of the nineteenth-century, the American mission board took over the work of the English Baptist Mission Society in southern Italy. Perhaps, that explains how Rev. Walker later became superintendent of Italian missions of the New York City Baptist Mission Society.

Alfredo Barone, like his mentor Rev. Walker, also came to the United States. A story from the April 1924 issue of Missions: American Baptist Magazine, tells of a young Italian boy in Haverhill, Massachusetts very much surprised "one Sunday afternoon [...] when he saw a man speaking to a little group of people in front of a store building that was being utilized as a mission" (212). Alfredo Barone was the preacher and this so shocked the boy for he had last seen Barone near San Sossio, Italy. The boy, Francesco, "had been the first to raise the cry of 'Protestant'" when the representative of the Baptist Mission Society of London approached San Sossio.

The street became crowded with people. The antagonisms born of their traditions, combined with actual terror, transformed these peace-loving townspeople into a mob. A shower of stones fell about the stranger. (Hayne 210)

The author of this narrative relates that: "The event was but one of a series of persecutions which he [Barone] had been experiencing" (Hayne 210).

The persecutions a minister such as Barone encountered came at the hands of others than countryside Catholic youths and
