Hope Street

Bristol, RI

DEM Division of Parks & Recreation
2321 Hartford Avenue, Johnston, RI 02919

In 1989 Governor's Bay Day was created in response to the World Prodigy Oil Spill to draw resident's attention to the quality and fragility of Narragansett Bay. On this day entrance fees are waived for all to enjoy our magnificent public beaches, some of the State's most treasured resources. Since 1999 Governor's Bay Day has been scheduled in July with events and activities at Colt State Park, Roger Wheeler State Beach, Ft. Adams State Park, Brenton Point State Park, Goddard Memorial State Park, Scarborough State Beach and Misquamicut State Beach. This year Governor's Bay Day is scheduled for Sunday July 29, 2007.

Scheduled at Colt State Park for Governor's Bay Day is a traditional New England Style Picnic, this bid solicitation is requested for interested food concessionaires and caterers to provide the public with a professional New England style picnic at Colt State Park from 11:30 AM to 1:30 AM on Sunday July 29, 2007.

Staff should be dressed in appropriate attire along with the necessary serving equipment to provide the food and beverages listed within this document.

Products specified may be bid as is or equal.

Bidders must provide a detailed statement of qualifications and experience along with reference letter[s] in providing professional food and refreshment service to large outings [1000 people or more]. The State of Rhode Island can reject any and all bids that are not considered responsive or meet minimum food service requirements.

Please call Steven T. Wright at 401-222-2632 for any additional information regarding this bid package.
