I. Correction

At the Pre-Proposal meeting it was reported that the complete RFP and all addenda should be included for reference at the back of each Proposal. The original RFP, the Scope of Work and the Addenda are incorporated by reference and should NOT be included in the Technical Proposal.

II. Questions and Answers addressed at the Pre-Proposal meeting held 6/11/18

Q1. Does the $5 million limit for Professional Liability Insurance also apply to Sub-Consultants?

A. No. This requirement is for the Prime Consultant. However, Prime Consultants should consider this higher limit when determining their own requirements with Sub-Consultants.

Q2. Regarding the requirement to provide resumes for key personnel, do we include resumes for Sub-contractors that will be providing non-engineering services, e.g., borings?

A. No. Provide a list of relevant projects and/or clients.

Q3. If we are utilizing the same Sub-Consultants for both Bridge Categories, is it necessary to include their qualifications twice?

A. No. Only if the teams differ.

Q4. The QA/QC procedures are lengthy. Is it acceptable to provide a synopsis of our QA/QC procedures as long as they adequately address how our firm will insure quality assurance and quality control as they relate to the On-Call Bridge Engineering Task Order Program?

A. Yes. In addition, you may provide a link to the location of your complete QA/QC procedures if they are posted at your firm's website.

Q5. Are firms required to submit Certificates of Insurance in their Proposals?

A. No. However, firms will be required to submit COIs at the limits listed in the RFP prior to contract award.

Q6. Will RIDOT reconsider its requirement that firms provide at least 5 projects with a minimum construction cost of $5 million completed by the Prime Consultant within the past 10 years?

A. Not at this time.

Q7. Regarding the requirement that firms provide at least 5 projects with a minimum construction cost of $5 million completed by the Prime Consultant within the past 10 years, is it acceptable to include projects wherein the design is complete but construction is not?

A. Yes, it is acceptable.

Q8. Please confirm that the Task Order Selection Criteria on Page 20 will be utilized for Task Order selection only and not for evaluation of Technical Proposals.

A. Confirmed.

Q9. Will RIDOT accept flash drives?

A. No. Due to IT security issues, a CD-R of your proposal (in pdf format) should be included with each hard copy.
