State Response to Vendor Questions for RFP # 7598635 Seven Challenges - Youth and Young Adult Treatment 3/5/2019

Question 1: On Page 11 of the Seven Challenges RFP – it states...

The successful vendor must be fully licensed or certified and in compliance with state rules and regulations, must be accredited by one of the recognized accreditation bodies (The Joint Commission, CARF or COA) and maintain compliance with all applicable state and federal statutes. The successful vendor(s) must meet all applicable certification standards and best practice guidelines pertaining to the programs and clinical services offered.

Could you please advise as to whether or not we would be eligible as a licensed facility who is in the process of COA accreditation but not yet received accreditation.

Answer to question 1:

Yes, you are eligible to apply as a licensed facility. Please describe your as far COA accreditation is concerned in the Capability and Capacity of the Offeror section, including when you anticipate receiving notification related to accreditation status.

Question 2: Is there a limit to the number of attachments bidders are allowed to submit as part of this RFP?

Answer to question 2:

No, there is no limit to the number of attachments. Please ensure that they include the required attachments.
